Re: United States v. Victor Corrica
Docket # 11 CR 714 (CBA)

Dear Chief Judge Amon:

I represent the above named defendant pursuant to a CJA appointment. The defendant is scheduled to appear before Your Honor for sentencing on Friday, March 2, 2012 at 9:30 AM. The defendant is not incarcerated, and he entered a plea of guilty on October 26, 2011 before Chief Magistrate Judge Gold.

On the scheduled sentence date, I have an appearance conflict. I have three matters scheduled that morning before Judge Spatt in Central Islip; two of those matters are on for sentencing and one is on for a status conference. Two of my three clients are incarcerated.

I therefore respectfully request that Your Honor adjourn the sentencing of Mr. Corrica for two weeks, until Friday March 16, 2012 in order to accommodate my schedule. I am not available on Friday March 9th because I must appear before Judge Seybert in a multi-defendant complex case that morning.

I have consulted with AUSA Nadia Shihata, who advises that she has no objection to this rescheduling. Because she has a matter scheduled before the court on the requested date at 10:00 AM, and I have a sentencing before Judge Block at noon, we jointly request that this matter be scheduled for sentencing on Friday afternoon, March 16, 2012 at 2:00 PM or any time thereafter convenient to the court. I have also spoken with USPO Cheryl Fiorillo regarding this change in scheduling and she consents as well.

Thank you for your courtesy.

Respectfully yours,
